THE PRACTICAL GUIDE TO SUSTAINABLE FORESTRY®

THE AMERICAN TREE FARM SYSTEM®

Tree Farmer is the official magazine of the American Tree Farm System (ATFS), a program of the American Forest Foundation. It is published six times a year for private forest landowners and volunteer foresters. Opinions do not necessarily represent those of ATFS.

MISSION

To promote the growing of renewable forest resources on private lands while protecting environmental benefits and increasing public understanding of all benefits of productive forestry.

Tree Farmer magazine is a forest enhancement publication by Tree Farmers for Tree Farmers and all who benefit from their endeavors. Tree Farmer espouses the environmental benefits of sustainable production of forest products through responsible forest stewardship on private forestlands. With information, advocacy, and practical advice, the magazine promotes sustainable forest practices for multiple benefits to society.

2004 Buyer's Guide & Resource Directory

HIGHLIGHTED LISTINGS ARE
TREE FARMER
ADVERTISERS

First suggested by the Tree Farmers who sit on the magazine's editorial board, this annual guide is designed to be a resource you can turn to again and again throughout the year. We hope you find it an efficient and effective way to locate and learn about the various services and products designed to better help you practice good stewardship.

The directory is organized alphabetically within categories. Some vendors and agencies are listed in more than one category, as many provide products and services that serve a variety of forestry and natural resources needs. Information appears in the following form, as much as possible: Company name, mailing address, phone number, fax number, contact e-mail address, website address and contact person.

We hope this second annual guide will assist you in your search for quality products and services — and that you will help us make it even more comprehensive in the years to come. We welcome your feedback as we plan for next year's issue. Please let us know how this guide can serve you better with additional products, services or resources. Questions concerning use or reactions regarding the sources listed should be sent to Tree Farmer magazine at the postal or e-mail addresses listed on the previous page.
