GROWING STEWARDSHIP FROM THE ROOTS

A screenshot of the Tree Farm System website homepage. The top navigation bar is green with white text: 'About Us', 'In Your State', 'Certification', 'Woodlands Conservation', 'Advocacy &amp; Policy', 'Tree Farmer Magazine', and 'Tools &amp; Resources'. The main header features a large image of a forest with the text 'THE BEAUTY OF OUR WOODS' overlaid. Below the header is a row of small thumbnail images. On the right side, there is a section titled 'JOIN OUR SOCIAL FOREST' with buttons for 'Our blog', 'Facebook', 'Twitter', and 'Newsletter'. Below this is a tagline: 'Sustaining forests, watersheds, and healthy habitats through the power of private stewardship.' The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is titled 'WHAT WE DO' and has a sub-section 'WEBINARS' with an image of a snake on the ground and text: 'Our webinar series is one of the many tools we provide to help keep your forests healthy, productive and enjoyable. Register for upcoming webinars or view past webinars.' The right column is titled 'WHAT WE'RE SAYING ON TWITTER' and contains two tweets: 'RT @Ecotrust: Investing in green growth to move stagnant economies @Guardian http://t.co/044smko2E 2 minutes ago' and 'RT @MNMwoods: find the right logger by asking about experience, training, &amp; insurance http://t.co/0rTN07k about 2 hours ago'. Below the tweets is a section 'THE LATEST FROM OUR BLOG' with three entries: 'It's Friday: Here's Your Week in Trees January 6, 2012', 'It's Friday: Here's Your Week in Trees December 23, 2011', and 'It's Friday: Here's Your Week in Trees December 16, 2011'. The right column also has a sub-section 'WOODLAND OWNERS RESOURCE' with an image of a forest and text: 'Another new tool is our Invasive and Destructive Species section of the Woodland Owners Resource. Find useful information on the Southern Pine Beetle. Photo: U.S. Forest Service'.
